

BRITISH EMBASSY GIVES RECEPTION FOR CARISBROOKE Marquis, Guest of Longworths, Honored by Informal Party.

The Marquis of Carisbrooke, who is the guest of Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, was the honor guest at a dinner which Lady Geddes, wife of the British Ambassador, gave last evening. The Ambassador has gone to England for a brief stay.

It was a small, informal party, and was followed by a small reception at 10 o'clock. Among the guests at the reception were the Hon. William Pugsley, governor of New Brunswick, Canada, and Mrs. Pugsley, who are spending the week at Warden Park Hotel; and the dinner guests of Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell and the charges d'affaires of the Italian Embassy and Mme. Brambilla.

The Marquis is leaving today for New York. Alexander Albert Mountbatten, Marquis of Carisbrooke, Earl of Berkhamstead, Viscount Launceston, is in this country on a private mission and has been singularly fortunate in maintaining the recognition which he so greatly desired. He came to Washington to be the guest for a few days of Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, who are old acquaintances of the Marquis. He came to Washington in 1905, when the same visitor, but then under the title of Prince Louis of Battenberg, was a much feted visitor at both the British Embassy and the German Embassy.

Mr. and Mrs. Longworth entertained at dinner Sunday evening for their distinguished guest, additional guests being asked in afterward for an informal musical. Samuel Fordyce, of St. Louis, was in the party. Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., whom the Marquis visited while in New York, accompanied him to Washington. The Marquis is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Longworth. He will return today to New York.

Yesterday Mrs. Marshall Field entertained at luncheon in compliment to the Marquis. Mrs. Vanderbilt, inviting the most distinguished little company of guests to meet them. There were twenty-four in the party.

The brother of Queen Victoria, of Spain and the grandson of the late Queen Victoria of England, the visitor is naturally a personage of consequence to both the Spanish and British embassies and, with his high position, is a distinguished gentleman who was a much-feted guest at both the British and the German embassies in Washington in 1905.

During the war the very name of the Marquis became so offensive to the English people that the family name was changed to Mountbatten, giving up at the same time all German titles and affiliations. The Marquis of Carisbrooke then ceased to be the Marquis of Carisbrooke, and in 1917 was created the Marquis of Carisbrooke, taking his title from Carisbrooke Castle in the Isle of Wight, his mother, Princess Beatrice, being governor and captain of the Isle of Wight and governor of Carisbrooke Castle. The young Marquis was in the royal navy from 1900 to 1902, and was a second lieutenant in the Grenadier Guards in 1911. He served in the great war, rose to the rank of captain and later joined the staff.

Stars to Perform In Joint Program To Aid Child Fund

Headliners busy entertaining at Washington theaters this week will combine in one grand effort Friday afternoon in an all-star benefit at the Shubert-Belasco Theater, proceeds of which will be donated to the Children's Relief Fund.

Ed Wynn of his own carnival, Fanny Brice of "Jimmie" and John Fitzgerald with Wynn's show, Dorothy Mackaye of "Blue Eyes," and Patricia of Keiths, and a string of other entertainers appear on the bill. In addition to the benefit party have been extended to David Warfield and Bert Williams, who are playing Baltimore this week.

Mrs. Wynn was raised as a result of the card party held at the Hotel Arlington yesterday by a committee headed by Mrs. Samuel Steinberger. Tables were placed in the lobby to accommodate the crowd.

A check for $1,000 has been received at the relief headquarters from Mrs. Louis W. Austin, 3135 Newark street, Cleveland Park.

Judges Announced For St. John's Drill

Two former military instructors at St. John's College, and the military instructor of the local high schools, have been selected to judge the drill of the college's reserve officers training corps at Rauscher's next Saturday night.

They are Lieut. Col. Oliver F. Snyder, U. S. Maj. Richard D. La Garde, and Lieut. Richard E. Colburn, and Lieut. Richard E. Day, U. S. Marine Corps and cadet instructor in the high schools.

A dance will follow the drill. The women's auxiliary of the college is in charge of arrangements.

Fruit Men Organize.

At a recent meeting held at Hamilton, Ont., fruit growers of the Niagara peninsula organized themselves under the name of the Niagara Peninsula Growers, Ltd., with a view to co-operation in marketing their produce and the prevention of waste. Hon. Mr. Doherty, minister of agriculture in Ontario, promised that the Ontario government would pay the first year's salary of a capable manager, and that such a man should be the biggest along this line in Canada.

It was decided upon incorporation on a second capital of $200,000, based on a total of 2,000 shares valued at $100 each, thus providing for a total membership of 2,000.
